CORRESPONDENCE: None

CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER'S REPORT: None

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS:

Jim Duffey:

- Mr. Duffey recognized Dr. Mordan for the preparation and planning of the 9th grade open house.
- Plaques were presented to Don Hilbinger and Ken Haines thanking them for their service to CareerTech by serving on the Joint Operating Committee.
- Mr. Frankenfield has started in Adult Ed and already new energy can be seen in the program
- Mr. Duffey shared with the JOC a number of concerns that he has with the CDL contract with Lancaster. Lancaster has expressed very high expectations that they have for us to advertise the program, all at our cost.
- We have also received a bill from LCCTC for third-party testing which we were not aware of. They are now saying we should have built this into the tuition for the program. A discussion followed. Mr. Duffey said we are working to resolve these issues. The opt-out clause for the program was discussed as well as advertising costs.
- The trade agreement is almost through the PDE process. CareerLink has already contacted us about possible students that could use this assistance.
- Mr. Duffey stated that he visited the Central Pennsylvania Institute of Science and Technology on Tuesday to talk about the accreditation process for adult education programs. CPI only has day adult programs and he learned that the accreditation process is very in-depth as a result of participating in the visit.
- The finalized packet of information for VA funding was mailed last week.

Ben Mordan:

- Reviewed enrollment numbers.
- Application deadline is December 20th. To date, we have received 130 applications.
- The uniform policy has changed. We will only offer a choice of the school colors, blue or gray. All ordering will not be done on-line and shirts will be shipped directly to the student's home.

Jan Collier:

- Annual Licensure exam pass rate for 2015 is 95.92%. Overall ranking 7th in state, #1 comparing schools of similar enrollment.
- August 15-16 graduates are all employed.
- Federal financial aid audit completed with no findings.
- Developing future building floor plan and investigating fund raising opportunities

Terry Miller:

- Currently there are 39 students on co-op with three pending. Last year this time, there were 38 students on co-op.
- Mr. Miller stated he has reviewed the new clearance requirements with employers.
- There is a sample of employer evaluations in the board packets.

- The program is going well and employers are very pleased.
- The program now has an electronic newsletter that is available on our Facebook page.
- A discussion followed about the new background checks for employers and the fact that employers are expected to pay for these background checks.
